California Constitution, Article 1 Section 1;
17 U.S. Code Sections 101 et seq.

Employees and students who use District computers and networks and the information they contain and related resources have a responsibility not to abuse those resources and to respect the rights of others. The Superintendent/President, in a manner consistent with BP 2510 Participation in Governance and Local Decision-Making, shall establish procedures that provide guidelines to students, administrators, faculty, and staff for the appropriate use of information technologies. The procedures shall include provisions that users must respect copyrights and licenses, respect the integrity of computer-based information resources, refrain from seeking unauthorized access, and respect the rights of other electronic communications users.

Violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.
