Adults in the Workforce
Please provide an executive summary of your proposed plan to expand opportunities in the program area This is a New Project Area proposal. Older adult unemployment continues to be problematic. Because of the changing skills needs, and the out-dating of existing skills, Older workers are rarely obtaining new jobs. Many are near retirement age, and are looking for a rewarding job for their final working days. This Project would outreach to unemployed Older adults and inform them of means and opportunities of working in elementary and secondary schoolsan Intergenerational Project.
Please explain how you plan to integrate existing programming to create seamless and accelerated transitions to The WDB oversees a workforce delivery system that offers numerous opportunities to the unemployed. This New Project would expand those opportunities to promote intergenerational work in elementary and secondary schools.
Using a WDB staff person to work with Older Worker & CBOs, the schools, and the WDB Youth Program, a project will be developed. Please demonstrate the need or gap in our region with respect to the program area identified. Please include This New Project, an intergenerational approach to assisting youth in elementary & secondary schools responds to the long-term unemployment crisis of older workers, who (according to WDB research studies, LMID data, and reporting from the 1-Stops) are not finding jobs.
Please describe how this proposed plan aligns with and is in the furtherance of the vision, mission and goals of This New Project aligns with the AEBG Consortium accepted Plan to provide services to adults to develop knowledge and skills to assist elementary & secondary school children.
Please attach the specific objectives and specific activities to complete the objectives, along with a timeline for
